SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Whether you are Democrat, Republican, socialist, communist or prohibitionist there is still one great privilege which you enjoy if you are an American citizen and that is the right to vote. But to exercise this privilege you must be registered and although the election still is months away, it is not too early to register If you have moved from the precinct in which you voted at the last general election or if you desire to change your party affiliation you are required to reregister and this week or next is not too soon.

Then after you have registered, be a good citizen and give a little more than passing thought to the man or issue for which you plan to vote. Make a thorough study of your candidate, if he is an incumbent and has done a good job, spent your money wisely and worked toward the best interests of the electorate, put him back on the job, such men are very scarce. On the other hand, if he has shirked his duties, squandered your money and failed to live up to the expectations you had for him, work toward his defeat. But above all don't wait until after election and then be sorry you failed to give the matter only a passing thought and allowed the wrong candidate to take office. After all, the choice is yours, but be careful of that choice.

It is indeed regrettable that pressure is being brought to bear to do away with the border checking stations. It is also regrettable that in our small capacity, we are helpless to prevent the contemplated action. They cry over the $100,000 annually which it is claimed the stations in California cost. In a state and nation where we speak of millions without batting an eye, that paltry $100,000 seems like a lame excuse but that sum can be made to sound huge by a politician seeking advancement or retention on an economy platform. There is little use of going over the advantages of the checking stations. It would only be said that we are selfish and wish to retain a minor local industry, but if for no other than the unassigned police duties the border clerks do, the stations are worthy of their hire and if any action at all is taken, it would be our suggestion to increase their number, enlarge the powers of the clerks and patrol the borders more thoroughly. California is certainly gaining its share of undesirables, in spite of the few border stations and limited powers of the attendants.

Man Kills Self After Car Crash Near State Line

A man identified through Masonic and Elks Lodge receipts as Clifford B. Eames, 45, representative of the California Packing Corporation, of 602 Stewart street, Reno, is believed to have ended his own life shortly before 11 o'clock this morning after the new Buick sedan he was driving left the highway near the Sierra county line east of Truckee and was badly wrecked.

..Officers advanced the theory that rather than suffer from injuries, the man shot himself in the right temple with a .22 calibre automatic which he had clutched in his hand when found.

The tragedy was discovered by Dan Kness, driver for the U. M. T. truck lines, who said the car passed him shortly before going at a high rate of speed. The machine plunged 200 feet into the canyon. The wheels were still turning when Kness came upon the scene. ....

..Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley, Deputy Coroner Ben Tonini and Checking Station Clerk Carl Smith were called to investigate.

Kness declared that he rushed to the aid of the man, but found the doors of the new sedan either locked or jammed and so went back to hail passing motorists. Returning immediately to the wreck, he found Eames dead and then summoned the local authorities.

TRUCKEE AIRPORT MAY BE IMPROVED FOR MAJOR LINERS

Rumors Persist That Concern Will Start Building Next Year

PLAN PASSENGER STOP

Would Entail Huge Expense To Provide Regulation Field Here

Although unconfirmed, rumors are persisting that one of the major transcontinental airline companies is seriously contemplating the erection of a permanent airport to replace the present emergency field near here.

Current reports are that the field will be enlarged, surfaced and made suitable for landing and taking off of the huge tri-motored planes.

It is said the company plans to erect a depot for Lake Tahoe and Truckee passengers during the summer months and provide a suitable landing for mail planes when fog in other centers prevents landing.

If present plans are executed a radio station will be maintained at the field.

Frank Gaiennie, local manager of the Sierra Pacific Power company, said his company had been in communication with the airline concern relative to a power line right of way held by the Sierra Pacific near the field.

With a passenger capacity of 222, as compared to 170 on the old streamliner of the same name which it replaces, the new train is powered by a three-car Diesel-electric locomotive. It is owned and operated jointly by Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Chicago & North Western railroads, and makes the San Francisco-Chicago run in 39¾ hours.

Snow Terminates Glowing Stories Of Tropics Here

It seems that we started something the other day when we reported that the yard of Dr. J. H. Bernard was yielding fresh blooming pansies.

A few days later came the story that Dr. C. B. Pedersen, wintering in Arizona was relishing vegetables that were growing in his yard at Tahoe City. The vetetables were being shipped, the story goes, by Mrs. A. M. Anderson.

It is probably a good thing the snow came when it did ,otherwise we would be hearing of bananas growing in this famous Winter Sports area.

BODY SEEKS ABOLISHMENT OF BORDER STATIONS

Truckee Entered Only Protest To Plan To Abandon Stations

DECISION IS NOT FINAL

Plan To Save State Annual Cost Of Maintaining Border Patrol

What might eventually prove a death knell to California's border checking stations was struck last week when the state chamber of commerce committee selected several weeks ago to investigate the advisability of maintaining the stations rec ommended to the chamber that the seven stations be discontiuned immediately.

This distastful report was brought to Truckee by C. Edmunds, who attended the chamber session in the capital last Friday.

Edmunds, in making the report at a meeting of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce Monday, said that the committee stated that only one protest had been filed against discontinuance of the stations and that was by the local chamber of commerce.

It is believed that the Southern California Automobile Club favors and is sponsoring the abolishment of the stations, charging that they are not worth the $100,000 annually they assertedly cost to operate. While the California Automobile Association is said to have at one time favored the removal of the stations, it later removed the objection.

While the decision of the chamber of commerce committee is not by any means final, it was pointed out that the word will bear considerable weight with any legislative investigating group, which might result in the abolishment of the stations or at least a revision of the present setup.

NEVADA SENATOR CONTINUES FIGHT FOR TAHOE LANDS

Two Men Nabbed Here Turned To Federal Courts

District Attorney Gives Pair To Federals For Trial

Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley said yesterday that he had received word from Sheriff Carl Tobiassen to the effect that District Attorney Vernon Stoll had turned over to federal officers Thomas Gordon, 34, and Mike Hines, 42, arrested here two weeks ago by the local officer and charged on four felony counts.

According to Dolley the men will face the federal court on charges of violating the Dyer Act, the other and more serious charges being held awaiting the outcome of the federal court judgment.

Gordon was the man who threatened Deputy Dolley's life with a .38 calibre revolver stolen, officers said, from the office of the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber company, while Dolley was taking him to jail.

During the night, Gordon and his cellmate attempted to break out of jail.

Both men, Dolley declared, were wanted in other sections of the state on felony charges involving issuance of worthless checks.

Sheriff Tobiassen told Dolley he had placed "hold" warrants against the two in event they escape punishment on the car theft charge.

A ride of 1,500,000 miles was covered mostly between Roseville and Sparks during the 40 years.

Beginning in 1898, Burdick has spent all of his time in Sacramento and has worked with 12 superintendents, starting with J. B. Wright and ending with W. L. Hack.

If permission is granted by the officials of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition, snow will be shipped to San Francisco from the high Sierra by refrigerator cars by a well known concessionnaire to show the world that sunny California also has snow sports for its visitors.

It has been planned to build a ski jump and bob sled course in the amusement area of the fair grounds on Treasure Island and repack the imported snow on the slides twice each day.

The Misses Betty Shone and Dorothy Snider are leaving Truckee to enroll in the Reno high school next week, according to their stated plans at the present time.

STORM BELIEVED AT END; WINTER SPORT PROMISED

Clear, Cold Weather Forecast For Weekend By U. S. Forest Service

NEW STORM IN NORTH

Conditions Expected To Be Ideal For Saturday's Excursion

With approximately 22 inches of snow recorded since Friday by Ben Winslow of the U. S. Forest Service and with promises of clear and cold weather over the weekend, prospects are excellent for Winter Sports here Saturday and Sunday.

Winslow said that precipitation for the storm measured 2.50 inches.

Winslow reported that while a new storm had developed off the coast, the high pressure area south of the disturbance is expected to force the storm north of here, with possibly the southern edge striking here the first of the week.

The forest service barometer, which took a nose dive Tuesday night was rising today and clear and cold was forecast for the week end and likely longer.

Each week the forest service sends out bulletins describing snow and weather conditions in this area for the benefit of snow enthusiasts. The reports are broadcast each Friday over the Red network of the NBC.

City. The vegetables were being shipped. East Sierra Ski Club of Bishop, it Truckee Outing Club being the other

The disappointment which was met by snow sports enthusiasts last week end will be more than offset during the coming week end, it is believed, as snow and ice conditions are expected to be ideal.

The Southern Pacific's special excursion which started last Friday is to be continued each Friday and Saturday through February.

EAST MEETS WEST

"East is East, and West is West, and never the twain shall meet," asserts Kipling's famous poem.

On the contrary, however, they will not only meet but start battling for supremacy as well, less than a year and a month from today. That's when the West's mammoth show, the Golden Gate International Exposition of 1939, gets off to a flying start over the New York World Fair which also opens next year, though not as soon as ours.

But the spectacular sights and doings on man-made Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay, site of the Fair, won't be the only drawing card. That's where we believe California has a definite edge on New York. Visitors to New York will see just a fair, albeit a fine and exciting one. Visitors to the Golden Gate International Exposition will be tempted by California's innumerable scenic and historic charms as well!

Already the drive to sell California—from Calexico to Crescent City—to four million visitors is getting up steam as final plans for the Big Event are whipped into shape. Most recent highlight in the January diary of the Fair's progress is a handsome quarter of a million dollar contribution from California railroads.

Thousands of these visitors will pass through Truckee and it will be here that they will be given their first impression of California and we offer as a suggestion, if you please that Truckee be prepared for that time. There is much to be done besides cleaning up and keeping our streets clean, dolling up our homes and gardens and sundry other lesser items and we propose that action be started soon to prepare the proper reception for those thousands who will visit our city.

If the state is successfully "sold" during the next twelve months, California will again prove the mecca of a continent and West will best East!

SNOW AND MEN

The first blast of wind that sends snow piling into the mountain seems to bring with it a vast amount of equipment manned by trained and efficient men whose duties are to keep traffic moving over the mountain by night and day.

For your convenience and mine those men, both on the highways and railroads battle terrific odds, facing dangers and even death, that traffic may continue. We salute the maintenance men of the highways and railways.

Politically Speaking

By Jack Welter

SACRAMENTO, Jan 20.—(UP) — A story going the rounds of the capitol indicates Gov. Frank F. Merriam has gone the soothsayers one better and picked off three birds with one stone.

Tis feat is likely to prove a very efficient operation, particularly with regard to the influence it may have on the 1938 campaign.

One of its morals might be said to be that it is possible to bulid levees to build fences.

The picture goes back to the days of the legislative session, where State Senator William P. Rich of Marysivlle was the man responsible in large measure for putting over the administration's legislative program.

When, after adjournment, State Supreme Court Justice Ira Thompson died, Rich's name was one of the first mentioned as a possible successor. It was common knowledge that Rich wanted the appointment, which was delayed for a number of weeks.

When finally it did come, it went to southern California.

The subsequent breach between Rich and the governor was a stock subject of discussion in capitol hallways for some time there after. This condition reached a climax when Rich wrote to the governor's secretary, referring in sarcastic vein to the supreme court appointment and to the then-pending selection of a warden at Folsom prison.

At least one administration lieutenant called on Rich in an unavailing attempt to patch up the difficulty. But the situation appeared, if anything, to get worse.

With at least a quarter of a million dollars worth of levee repairs and debris clearance made mandatory by the floods, Rich and his northern California contemporaries found themselves cut off at the pockets. They went to the governor, asking at least $150,000 for levee repairs—and they got it.

Analyzing this situation, it would seem everyone is happy.

Rish, who may claim much of the credit for getting the appropriation needed to meet the flood emergency, reportedly has buried the hatchet with the administration.

Southern California got a supreme court justice.

Northern California will get its levees repaired.

The administration should net some votes. And in allocating the $150,000 from his $1,000,000 emergency fund, Merriam received the pledge of northern legislators they would back an appropriation bill at the forthcoming special legislative session to reimburse the fund.

With the administration beginning to beat the gong on one of its anticipated campaign keynotes, political activity is gradually hitting a faster tempo.

Visiting Sacramento simultaneously this week were State Senator Culbert Olson, Democratic gubernatorial candidate; Herbert C. Legg, another Democratic aspirant, and Pierson M. Hall, who will oppose U. S. Senator William Gibbs McAdoo at the Democratic primary.

Hall's principal observation was that the nation's anti-trust laws need a thorough overhauling to provide better control of big business and coincident elimination of child labor, wage and hour and fair trade abuses.

Legg indicated he would support a potential November ballot proposition which would transfer all costs of old age, bling and needy children aid to the state, relieving counties of any obligation in this connection.

Olson said he will champion higher salaries for thousands of state employees receiving $100 or little more. Living conditions demand greater compensation, he said.

Legg's reference to the social secur-

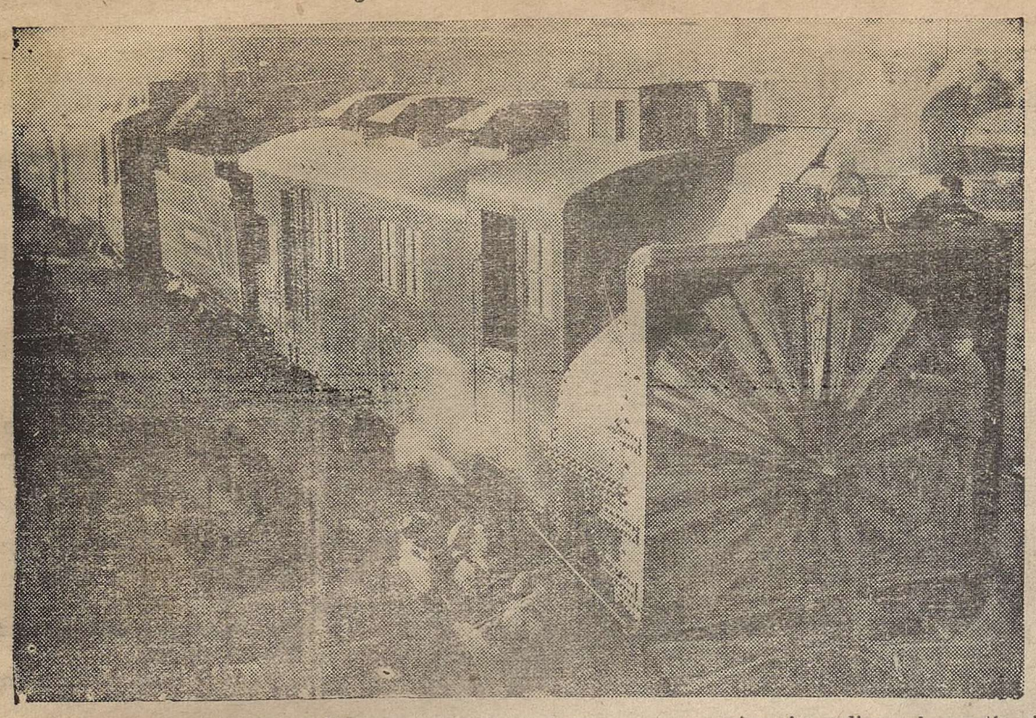
Giant Rotary Plows Will Battle Snows



This picture shows the two big rotary snow plows delivered to the Southern Pacific by the American Locomotive Works. The equipment went into service this week on the company's main line over the Donner summit. Officials of the company said they are the largest plows of the type built and are capable of clearing the tracks during the most severe snowstorms. The plows are driven by a two cylinder steam engine. An ordinary locomotive is used to push the plows. Five plows almost equal in size and several smaller ones are in use over the summit. The second of the two new plows is shown at the rear of the one in the foreground. —Bee Photo.

BLACK CAT OFFERED MANY HOMES AS IT INHERITS FORTUNE

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.— (UP)— Lily Cat, a coal black feline with a $5,000 bankroll, set a new high for popularity of black cats as hundreds of people discovered her color just suited them.

Recipient of a trust fund under which terms of her late owner Miss Annie Hasche directs that $50 monthly be paid for her keep, Lily affected an upstage manner as she posed for photographers and had her paw print recorded.

Attorney C. H. S. Bidwell, swamped with offers to care for Lilly, said he never realized so many people loved cats—particularly black ones.

LANDSCAPING FOR PALATIAL HOME OF WHITTELL STARTS

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 20.—Eugene and Joseph Re, Tahoe landscape artists and stone masons, have been putting in some beautiful work at the palatial home of George Whittell across the lake.

The general artistic plan resembles the world-famous gardens of the French Riviera. Already completed is a roofed pavilion, 12 feet square, of natural rock, with flagstone flooring, perched high upon o prominent bluff where tea or cocktails may be served in summer.

From there a rock tunnel and stair leads to the beach where a barbecue pit faces an open fire place across the sand, all sheltered from winds by a seawall 35 feet long and 12 feet high.

A natural well, at the bottom of which one may see waters of Lake Tahoe, stands conveniently nearby. A pier, built of natural stone with arches each hewn of one piece of solid rock, stretches out into the water for a distance of 60 feet. A second arched stone bridge, 16 feet long leads from the shore to the lighthouse built in cylinder shape and rising 22 feet into the air. Although already in operation, the present light will be replaced by a more powerful one.

On another arch 27 feet high by 14 feet wide, bteween natural stones atop a cliff, stands a towering flag ople upon which Old Glory will unfurl in the breeze.

Although the Whittell estate now boasts its own power plant, a new power house of stone has been erected in which will be enclosed a turbine plant, due within a month, to replace the one now in use. The water needed for its operation will be discharged back into the lake, but will be pumped to the crest of the rock bluff from where it will tumble merrily down at the rate of approximately 200 gallons a minute, over a series of alternating rocky, fern-lined waterfalls and artificial lakes, the largest of which is 100 feet by 27 feet.

Every known artifice has been employed in the Whittell garden to enhance, if possible, the natural rugged beauty found most anywhere about Tahoe's shores ,even to the old fashioned wishing well, with its old oaken bucket hanging invitingly overhead.

Winding rock stairways, patios and walks of flagstone lead into every allurin gnook of the 50 or more acres of ground set aside for the Tahoe paradise which is the Whittell estate.

DREAM OF TAHOE WOMAN NEARLY COMES TRUE SUNDAY

TAHOE CITY, Jan. 20.— Mrs. Minnie Pomin of Idlewild on Sunday night dreamed that a large tree fell on a little house in which she and her husband were supposedly living.

During Sunday night's wind and snow storm a large tree did fall on the ice house in the Fleishhacker estate yard not far from their home, shatering a corner of the building and ruining all the ice in the pond which was just ready for harvesting.

During the storm of several weeks ago a tree fell on a guest cottage of the estate severing it completely and causing considerable damage.

MONEY WILL NOT BE SAFETY FOR THOSE CAUSING ACCIDENTS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.— (UP)— Automobile drivers whose negligence causes motor vehicle accidents on the state's highways henceforth face criminal prosecution regardless of ability to pay civil damages.

Director Ray Ingels said his enforcement agency, the California high way patrol "means to devote its full energies to keeping down the toll of death and injury on our highways during 1938."

"Hitherto the impression has existed that financial satisfaction for damages relieved the person responsible for an accident of further prosecution, but this is not the case," Ingels said.

"Every officer on the patrol has been specifically trained in scientific accident investigation. On the basis of these investigations coming within the patrol's jurisdiction it will be determined whether evidence of negligence or responsibility exists against any individual involved in an accident and in cases wheer such negligence or responsibility exists, the true facts of the accident investigation will be submitted to the courts for prosecution.

IT IS good policy to check up on your lighting at least once a month. Replace lamp bulbs that have grown dim. Fill up the empty sockets and replace the small sized bulbs in floor and table lamps before headaches and eyestrain develop.

It is good policy, too, to see that the light on your porch or basement stairs is really good light. Most dangerous falls on stairs are caused by a misstep due to shadows and poor light. In the kitchen many cuts and burns might be avoided if just a little better light was by the kitchen sink or stove.

Good floor and table lamps today are inexpensively priced. Prices of lamp bulbs in sight-saving sizes are lower than ever and the reduced electric rates make better lighting a truly low cost monthly item. Check over the lighting in your home today.

The highest total for any single month was reported during December when stamp sales amounted to $1,040,002. This was a gain of 2.18 per cent over December, 1936.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.— (UP)—Approximately 3,100 persons lost their lives on California highways in 1937, a tentative compilation by the state department of motor vehicles revealed.

The director said that although December figures have not been completed, indications were that last year's death toll would be relatively the same as 1936 when highway fatalities in this state totaled 3,132.

ENABLING BILL FOR HOUSING PROGRAM URGED FOR SESSION

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.— (UP)—Urgent need for the state enabling act to permit California participation in the federal government's low-cost housing program has been added to the emergency of the southern California tideland oil situation as foundation for a special session of the legislature.

Governor Frank F. Merriam, refusing to indicate publicly whether he intends to call the session, is expected to summon the lawmakers to meet sometime between February 7 and February 25.

After a three-day hearing in Los Angeles and Sacramento, the state assembly interim committee on social welfare submitted to Merriam a report declaring that "housing legislation constitutes a case of urgency that would, of itself, justify a special session of the legislature."

"The committe therefore recommends to His Excellency, the governor, the inclusion of enabling housing legislation in animmediate call to protect the interests of California communities againts the depletion of federal funds," the report said.

This recommendation was based on testimony during the hearings in which officials warned that unless California acts speedily ,all available federal money will have been allocated to other states, which already have housing acts or are rushing them through their legislatures.

Witnesses of every strata of social life testified during its hearings on the subject and not a single objection was raised to the "type of housing program under consideration," committeemen reported.

"Among the desirable features of such a housing program were stressed such points as the necessity for cleaning out blighted areas that are depreciating the values of surrounding property, and breeding disease, juvenile delinquency and crime," the report said, summarizing testimony.

"The humanitarian and social values that accrue from good housing and the stimulus that a building program would give to employment, trade and industry" also were set forth as supporting arguments.

The committee pointed out that in many instances research has disclosed that slum areas are costing municipal governments far more in fire, health and police protection costs than they return in taxes. This combined with the fact that such districts detract from value of adjoining property, brought the comment that "this type of subsidy is inexcusable.'

"The only proctical method for eradication of these slums appears to be through slum clearance and low-cost housing projects financed by the federal government," the report concluded.

"SLALOM" WILL BE SHOWN HERE FOR BENEFIT OF CLUB

"Slalom", that skiing romance of the Switzerland films which has been proclaimed a masterpiece in entertainment both from a standpoint of story and vivid skiing shots, will be shown at the Donner Theater here on Thursday, February 3, under the auspices of the Truckee Outing Club.

Wood Soanes in the Oakland Tribune says that Hollywood would have called it "Alpine Romance' or something even more so, but Switzerland merely labeled it "Slalom" which means a down hill run and if "Slalom" doesn't take a down hill run into big box office money, we are going to be fooled mightely.

The picture has to do with skiing, not of the newsreel jumping kind but the sort you seem to have fun at, gliding over vast areas of soft snow in the St. Moritz area, surrounded by pretty girls and pursued occasionally by cops.

With the entire country becoming more and more ski conscious, the film holds an alure for all.

The picture is presented with an English foreword, background music and an occasional German phrase or two but in the main it is a silent picture, a sort of a glorified Keystone comedy with all the chases and races galore.

It will make an excellent combination and a satisfying evening's entertainment.

ity question and its financing coincided with a suggestion discussed by the governor earlier in the week. Merriam, who said he expected a balanced budget by August, already has taken preliminary steps toward a possible tax reduction program for submission to the legislature in 1939.

If the budget is balanced and the prospects are for a surplus, the governor said he would favor some such action, or a slash in some of the existing state levies.

Acres of Machinery in Motion

MORE than 1,000 machines are pounding, whirring and drilling at top speed in this great exhibition hall. Some of the largest and most powerful machines in existence may be seen there in actual operation. A score of countries send their newest machinery for demonstration. The machinery exhibits is a division of the Leipzig Spring Fair.

To install thousands of tons of machinery a series of railroad tracks are run directly to the floor of the hall. Months are required to assemble the exhibits. The Fair lasts for a single week, while visitors from every civilized country in the world are gathered to examine it. The great building is one of seventeen halls which house the machinery exhibits.

The great machine shop is in reality the world's clearing house for machinery and machine tools. The latest products of thousands of factories and laboratories are assembled here. In connection with the Fair there are many international congresses of machine experts, who discuss the newest exhibits and their influence in manufacturing and producing centers all over the world.

The next Fair, opening March 6th, 1938, incidentally, will be the 1978 session of the historic Fair.

This Week At The State Capitol

By JOHN ABBOTT
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Jan 20.-- (UP) — A $48,000,000 relief appropriation may be exhausted before the end of 1939, relief commission chairman Archbald Young warned an assembly intermin social welfare committee.

Appearing to explain details of his organization, Young cited a 53 per cent increase in relief costs for the period of July 1, 1937 to December 31 as adequate proof that his fears were well founded.

He traced the rise to the business recession, noting a decided increase in the Los Angeles case load, where peak inventories have suspended operations in many plants and enlarged the relief rolls to an alarming degree.

Also appearing was relief administrator Harold E. Pomeroy, who was not so gloomy as Young but nevertheless conservative in his predictions regarding the supply of money to aid the jobless.

Pomeroy said with the expected upswing in business he believed the alloted funds would suffice. Peak winter load will be anticipated 70,000 eases crowding the list to near capacity.

Concluding its week long inquiry into relief and low cost housing conditions the committee mmbers headed by assemblyman Elmore Lore of North Hollywood submitted a report to goverenor Merriam describing the Los Angeles housing situation as "critical" and recommending the subject be included in the special legislative session's program

Inclusion of enabling housing legislation, pemitting California to participate in federal appropriation for the purpose, is necessary "to protect the interests of California communities against the depletion of federal funds," the report said.

Severtl witnesses favoring the idea declared much of the $300,000,000 available unner congressional enactment has been earmarked, asserted all will be spoken for if this state fails to art immediately.

Rounding out the developments concerning social welfare, Supervisor H. C. Legg of Los Angeles, Democratic candidate for governor, called upon the legislators to provide employment in government jobs for men and women between the ages of 40 and 60.

"Men and women between these ages are every bit as efficient as people of lower age," the supervisor maintained.

Biggest news to northern California was the state toll bridge authority's decision to delay action on the proposed purchase of the Southern Pacific railroad's San Francisco Bay ferries.

Advanced by director of public works Earl Lee Kelly and Florence McAuliffe, attroney for the authority, as an eventual saving on the bridge bonds through elimination of bridge competition, the suggested $3,750,000 deal developed opositionp chiefly from state senator Culbert L. Olson of Los Angeles and East Bay community representatives.

Governor Merriam declared he would sanction no purchase agreement that did not include a promise from the railroad to abandon its Sausalito lines as well.

California's disasterous December floods caused damage estimated at nearly $15,000,000, a survey conducted by the state division of water resources disclosed.

Only counties to escape were San Benito, San Luis Obispo, Imperial, San Diego and Stanislaus.

The governor trimmed sail on the optimistic state surplus estimates ventured by several department heads and ventured to remark a cautious "I don't expect much of a surplus; if we get through in the black I'll be happy."

Merriam said provided a surplus can be shown by next August he would opposed reduction of the three per cent sales tax, principal revenue producer for California.

United States attorneys appeared in court to acquire by condemnation approximately 7,800 acres of timberland in Tuolumne and Mariposa counties for addition to Yosemite National Park.

Governor Merriam announced definitely he will not reappoint Frank Sykes of San Francisco to the state board of prison directors.

Sykes' term expired January 15. The San Franciscan and Judge T. N. Harvey attacked the governor for assertedly influencing the recent selection of Clyde I. Plummer of Los Angeles as Folsom Prison warden.

CRIMES IN STATE SHOW INCREASE, SURVEY OF PAST YEAR DISCLOSES

SACRAMENTO, Jan 20--(UP) — Substantial increase in the number of crimes committed in California during 1937 compared with 1936 was reported by Clarence S. Morrill, chief of the state division of criminal identification.

Offenses reported to the division last year totaled 38,376 against 33,283 for the preceding 12 months. Statistics compiled by the division showed the following comparative figures:
